

APPLICATION OF COMPLAINTS IN ROAD CONDITIONS JEMBER

Mohammad Yoga Halenda Oktavian Prakoso

Program Studi Manajemen Informatika

Jurusan Teknologi Informasi

ABSTRACT

Jember as a city that has a diversity of social and economic life, especially in the areas of life of the population is closely related to spatial planning. Along with these conditions, there is a domino effect in which the mobility of people and goods to be very dense, which means we need a transport infrastructure sufficient traffic. Especially on road conditions. To simplify the way users access information on the road conditions jember city, then made Complaints Application Road Condition In the city of Jember.

Activity methods used in making the application that is using Agile Software Development.

The results of this application form of information on road conditions. And there is an additional form of the complaint form the road conditions are not yet terinput by the application. Individual complaints made by road users. While this application user there are two public and admin of the relevant office.

Keywords: Jember, Method activities, Street