

Geographic Information System in Rural Land Mapping Tawing
Kab.Trenggalek

Jayeng Hardika Prakoso

Program Studi Manajemen
Jurusan Teknologi Informasi

ABSTRACT

Village Head Office is a government agency to collect data on the population, especially the data collection Identity Card (KTP), Family Card (KK), Surat Birth, Death Certificate, Certificate of Move, Documenting the recap of the Poor, and also Certificate of Land. For that an agency requires an information system that supports the needs of government agencies that would greatly help a good management of government agencies to create efficiency and effectiveness of government agencies themselves.

Population information system to assist in the process of land records in the form of maps or information systems as a basis of accurate data on land in a supporting role and functions of the village in facilitating the search for information on any populated land. The authors conducted research with the title "Land Mapping Geographic Information System In Rural Tawing Kab. Trenggalek".

Kata Kunci: Website, Information Systems, Land Mapping, Agency Village