

Pembuatan Website Rumah Sakit Umum Daerah Besuki Kabupaten Situbondo. (Website Development General Hospital of Besuki Situbondo).

Alief Wijayanto

*Medical Records Study Programme
Health Programme*

ABSTRACT

General Hospital of Besuki is a government-owned hospitals Situbondo located in the western part of Situbondo precisely in Besuki City. Based on the results of preliminary studies General Hospital of Website Besuki not have hospitals and hospital accreditation will follow. The purpose of this research is to create a website Besuki General Hospital of to meet the accreditation of the 2012 version of sub-section communication with the public / community (ICM 1). This research is a qualitative research method waterfall system development. Consists of several stages of analysis, design, coding, and testing. Methods of data collection using interviews and observation. Results of this research is to create a website General Hospital of Besuki based analysis has been done. Dynamic websites that can simplify admin in data processing such as changing, adding and removing data. Suggestions for the hospital is expected to add the service menu hospital statistics and online registration.

Keyword : Website, Communications, General Hospital of Besuki