ABSTRACT

BANGUN BAGASKARA , learning media about photography of Human interest genre, Guided By , Mr. Hendra Yufit Riskiawan, S.Kom, M.Cs

The photos of human interest genre seems to always be interesting to see. Human interest itself is one genre in photography which records people's daily activities. So, to get the moment and the results of the right photo a photographer has to be able to mingle and approach to the environment which will be targeted aim.

Most beginner photographers usually make a few mistakes that can miss important moments such as errors in setting the ISO, Shooter Speed and Aperture. When the problem occurs the user will encounter various errors such as images that are not focus, noise image, looks too dark / light, using flash camera at the wrong time, the results of image blur when shooting moving objects and eventually photos that can be less qualified.

Therefore, it needs a way to overcome the problem, one way is packing tips and learning into a learning media about human interest photography genre-based desktop application using Adobe Flash CS6. With the learning media about human interest photography genre is expected the user can master the technique of photography genre of human interest, especially at the elementary level.

Keywords: Learning Media, Photography, Human Interest